

CALL FOR PAPERS

OR in Balkans - Recent Advances

Proceedings of the XIII Balkan Conference on Operational Research - BALCOR 2018

At the occasion of the XIII Balkan Conference on Operational Research - BALCOR 2018, May 25-28, 2018, Belgrade, Serbia (<http://balcor2018.fon.bg.ac.rs>), we invite all conference participants to submit their research work to the forthcoming book of Springer Proceedings in series: Springer Proceedings in Business and Economics (<http://www.springer.com/series/11960>), dedicated to BALCOR 2018.

The contributions should be of a high standard and of current interest. In order for the Proceedings to be categorized as the leading international Thematic Proceedings (in accordance with the current rules for M13 category), each paper should fulfill the following conditions:

- Length of paper should be at least 28800 characters with spaces
- Each paper should contain at least three self-citations regarding the following categories: (1) thematic proceedings, (2) a scientific journal of international importance or (3) a monograph of either national or international importance (for authors from Serbia - at least three self-citations of categories M10 or M20 or M40 of which at least 2 should be of categories M20).

Contributing authors should use the style files for multi-author books and follow the technical instructions available at the conference web site. Papers that do not comply with these guidelines will not be considered for publication.

Submitted papers will be refereed by at least 2 independent referees of the scientific committee. Contributing authors should use the style files for multi-author books and follow the technical instructions. Papers that do not comply with these guidelines will not be considered for publication. Submissions of papers should be made through the Online Conference Service (OCS) of Springer available at: <https://ocs.springer.com/ocs/home/BALCOR2018>
